EDITORIAL PARAGRAPHS. IT reads like the times of Tiglath-Pieser that the Egyptians and Abyssinians are at war. One almost looks for a Pharaoh-Necho to be at the head of the Egyptian invasion, whereas it is after all only some of our own adventurous Americans who perform that officethe majors and generals and so on of the late So-Called who took commissions some years since, in the Khedive's army. The merits of the quarrel do not appear, but no doubt, in view of possible complications with the Sultan, the Khedive is bent on exercising his soldiers.

WHILE we receive reports from every section of our own country that the fruit yield of the present season is exceptional in its fullness, there comes to us from England the announcement that in from England the announcement that in that country the crops have been the smallest that the most experienced and charge of the same towards the summit, and fall off the same towards the West, that no more labor is necessary than would be anywhere observant cultivator can remember. In observant cultivator can remember. In fact, as one of their agricultural papers remarks, there is little better than no crops at all. And a most noticeable little grading only is required. The real trouble is that, that country has so little in it worth building a railroad for. fact is that the failure is a total one in every variety. Usually, in seasons noted for scanty supplies of fruit, some kinds are plentiful enough to compensate in some sort for the general deficiency. But this year there is nothing of the kind. The exceeding cold weather which respectively and a great varying stretch of sandstone, until one prevailed during March and a great part of April has made the peach wall as barren as the orchard—the cherry trees as empty as the plum and the pear tree and bush fruits alike to present nothing but branches devoid of treasure-trove of timber: this ends the statement of natbut branches devoid of treasure-trove of

But then this difference is easily explanable when one rec- acres. that there was a certain proposed that party which would either keep away from the polls altogether or accept the situation and vote directly for Mr. gentlemen.

On the 6th instant Mr. Wm. Burgess, Grant. The new ticket will certainly attract all these, but whether its supporters will be drawn in such numbers from the mass of the Democratic party as to materially affect the results is a question much easier answered the 6th of November than now.

On the 6th instant Mr. Wm. Burgess, blacksmith for the Navajoe Agency at Fort Defiance, Arazona, reached Wingate from that post, and I concluded that was my best chance for company on another stage of my journey. The distance between the posts is just forty-five miles, as measured by Lieut. Beall's odometer in 1860; and Befiance is about three miles west of the Territorial line.

By order of a Mormon Justice of the Peace made a descent on two houses of ill fame, and with axes, knives, etc., demolished all the furniture therein, probably worth ten thousand dollars. Bureaus, beadsteads, pictures, carpets, and everything were chopped to pieces. A considerable amount of money and jewelry are said to be taken. The excitement among the liberal citizens on account of the waste of property is intense. Much bad feeling exists, and threats are make to organize vigilance committees and clean out Brigham Young and other Polygamists houses.

The survey of the entire line of the Utah, Idaho and Monhaga Railroad from Corrine to Helena, about four hun ared miles is completed. The contracts tor grading and tieing the first section of fifty miles will be awarded in a few days.

On the completion of this season's contract, there will be FIVE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEEN MILES, of the main line of the road in operation, uniting Lake Superior with the Missouri River, and securing the large traffic of the Northwest. This amount of road also entitles the Company to Ten Million Four Hundred Thousand Acres of Land, located in Ceutral Minnesota, Eastern Dakota, and in the Columbia Valley on the Pacific Coast. The Bonds are secured by a first mortgage on the Road, its Traffic and Franchises, and on the entire Land Grant received from the Government. The rate of interest is Seven and Three-tenths, Gold, equivaent to about Eight and a Quarter per cent, in Currency. Believing the security to be ample, and the rate of interest satisfactory, we recommend these Bonds as a desirable investment. despite his letter, and placed upon John Quincy Adams of Massachusetts, the honor of bearing aloft the vice-presidential honors of the ticket. In speaking of this convention it is somewhat curious to observe the difference between those papers which support Mr. Grant and those which labor for the election of Mr. Greeley. According to the former the nominations were made "amid a scene of terrific and indiscribable enthusism," while the latter assert that ence is easily explanable when one recollects that it is no less the cue of the one to magnify any division in the ranks of Mr. Grant's opposers than it is of the other to make light of such defection. As to what the effect will really be is somewhat difficult to prophesy. There is no question but that there are many old line Democrats who will rally to the support of the new ticket, supposing that both Mr. O'Conor and Mr. Adams shall accept the nominations. BEADLE. HOUSTON, Aug, 27. 1872. DEAR JOURNAL :- For the past week Houston has been in a state of constant same in his works, is independent just where steamboats and freight trains are because he seeks his own profit. He makes his opportunities for independence pay—is firm against a measure when his friends most need him, and when he is "fixed" is generally as "independent" the other way. We have seen so much of the independent journalist, that whenof the independent journalist, that whenever we hear of one we look for a trimmer and a timesaver, on the watch for the main chance. But "the impartial journalist is the true exponent of the ideas of the times. His vision always extends to the truth; and his estimates of men are fair and just. When he declares a fact it has an existence which cannot be destroyed, and when he makes a statement content in the independent journalist, that when a content in the work done in a cotton field. Though there will be hardly enough of detail to make a sufficient guide, should any wish to come down here and make a fortune out of the Royla family.

To begin with, ploughing is commenced the first of February, which when finished, leaves the fields in long parallel beds, four feet wide. Through the middle of each bed, a kind of plough called a scooter is run leaving a stroyed, and when he makes a statement it rests upon the immovable foundations of truth."

We look alone to impartial journalism to clear up the vile corruption which now surrounds partizan politics. The misrepresentation of the press is the most feastful injury which can be inflicted on Following the sower comes another ne-
